LOYOLA COLLEGE - MONTREAL

December 1957

ANNUAL MEETING JANUARY 23

PROVINCIAL IS ALUMNUS

Word has been received of the appointment of the Very Reverend Gordon F. George S.J., as Provincial of the Jesuit Province of Upper Canada. Father George, whose two brothers Bill and Emmett also attended Loyola graduated in 1932 and entered the Society in 1936. He was ordained in 1948 and before his recent appointment was Rector of the Jesuit Seminary, Toronto.

Succeeding Father George as Rector of the Seminary is another Loyola Alumnus, Very Reverend Edward F. Sheridan, S.J. Father Sheridan, brother of Alumni President John Sheridan and of Rev. Gerald Sheridan S.J., also graduated from Loyola in 1932 and entered the Society in 1933. He was ordained in 1944 and before his appointment as Rector, he was Professor of Moral Theology at St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto

"AT HOME" HELD

On November 16, 1957, 125 guests made up of Alumni, their escorts and friends, gathered in the Loyola Gymnasium for the annual "At Home". The evening was an outstanding social success to which many generously contributed.

Excellent food and colorful decorations created a happy atmosphere and when old friends were added to this combination, the result was most satisfying. Highlight of the evening was the entertainment staged by some of the talented students of the College. Their vocal and instrumental presentations sampled some of the hits of the past four decades.

Outstanding was a group headed by Murray Bolton, a Sophomore, whose singing should be heard by a talent scout. The program included a ballet selection by a student of Marianopolis and ended with a hilarious version of the famous "Charleston". After the entertainment there was ample time to visit with friends and soft background music maintained the party atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh with their son immediately after his ordination.

ALUMNUS ORDAINED IN ROME

The Congregation of Holy Cross recently announced the ordination of Rev. Thomas D. Walsh, C.S.C. of the Anglo-Canadian Vice Province. The Sacred Rite was celebrated on the feast of Christ the King, October 27 in the chapel of the Congregation's International House of Studies in Rome, Italy, with Archbishop Pietro Sigismondi acting as the ordaining Prelate. The Archbishop is Secretary of the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda Fide, which supervises all missionary activity in the Church.

Father Walsh was raised in Sherbrooke where he attended both the elementary school and the academy in St. Patrick's parish. In 1948 he enrolled in Loyola College and in 1951 entered the Novitiate of the Holy Cross Fathers at North Dartmouth, Mass. He made his first vows in 1952 followed by two more years at Stonehill College, Mass., where he graduated in Philosophy. He then was sent to Rome in 1954 for his theology.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walsh now live in Montreal. Other children include John, Terence, S.J., Elizabeth (Mrs. David Wilcock) and DoRene. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh travelled to Rome for their son's ordination and first Mass.

ALUMNI BURSARIES-MEDAL PRESENTED

On Wednesday, October 16, 1957 at a reception in honor of the '57 Graduates of the College President W.J. Sheridan presented two Alumni Bursaries. One, the Alumni Graduate Bursary, was available to a member of the graduating class and was won by Ross Labrie '57, who is presently studying at McGill for a Master of Arts degree in English Literature. The other, the Alumni Undergraduate Bursary, was presented to Robert Coughlin, a third year science student.

The same evening, in the College Auditorium, the High School Commencement Exercises were held at which J. Brendan O'Connor '32, was guest speaker. Representing the President of the Alumni, Kenneth F. Cassidy presented the Loyola Silver Medal to Tim Hogan. The Medal is one of the highest awards and is given to the most representative Loyola High School student. It is traditionally donated by the Alumni.
